

ST JOSEPH'S NEWS

TERM 4, WEEK 6

This Week at Joeys

Tickets for the Musical went on sale on Monday, and we so appreciate everyone being respectful and buying 2 per family. The remaining tickets will be available to purchase tomorrow via the same link. We ask that you again limit purchases to 2 per family.

We know info about the Musical has been coming home thick and fast lately – we have summarised this as best possible in this newsletter.

Finally, as news reports have shared, COVID and gastro cases have increased on the Northern Beaches lately. Let's try and keep our students well as we finish the school year – and please don't send your Joey to school if they're sick.

Virginia Outred, Principal

Vinnies Appeal

Over the next few days your Joey will come home with a note detailing how you can support the St Vincent De Paul Christmas appeal by providing goods for Christmas hampers.

This year the focus is on families affected by the rising cost of living. Thank you for your support of this worthy cause.

–Kath Fogwell, Religious Education Co-Ordinator

Life at Joeys

Music lessons are in full swing!

Many budding Joeys musicians have been having instrumental lessons every Wednesday for the past few weeks. It is so lovely hearing all the fabulous sounds filtering through the school. If your child is interested in learning or you would like more information about our Joeys Band Program, please visit www.musiclinks.com.au/joeys

It is never too late to get started learning an instrument! We look forward to welcoming many more Joeys to our program!

Last Day of School

Our last day of Term will be Friday Dec 16.

We finish with an End of Year Liturgy at 11.30am, to which all are invited to attend.

Afterwards, we clap out our Year 6 class as they farewell us and wrap up their primary school journey! You are then very welcome to take your child home for a slight early mark.

More specifics will follow in upcoming weeks.
