

ST JOSEPH'S NEWS

WEEK 8, TERM 2, 2025

This Week at Joeys

Dear parents,

Your eyes aren't playing tricks on you... our shade sail is currently down. The poles that hold it up are undergoing repairs and it will be reinstalled very soon.

Thanks for labelling your child's jumpers, beanies and hats - it's been much easier to reunite cold Joeys and their warm layers!

Reports are available tomorrow and Parent/Teacher interviews start next week. We embrace our collaborative approach to learning and appreciate your support in understanding what your child needs to thrive and grow.

The Handball Olympics have been a lot of fun and the whole school watched the Finals today. CONGRATULATIONS to Polding (Blue) who took out the top honours at a House level, ably led by Sports Leader Michaela.

Well done to our Year 6 students who have been running the competition and a big thanks to Mrs McCamey and Mrs Wilkinson for organising and Mrs Calleja for supporting. This is a student run event and they really embrace it.

Liturgy next week

If anyone would like to join us, Kindy and Years 1, 2, 3 and 4 will have a liturgy at 2:30pm next Thursday 26th at Church.

Virginia Outred - Principal
